

Material usage is the main cost driver of a SV. Therefore, every engine demands a high level of control.

GTS can support the operator and lessors to lower their material management cost by providing excellent relationship with vendors, suppliers and access to all the most updated repairs.

We have the right solution to determine where, how, what to repair or exchange between New and Used Serviceable Material.

